DeGaulle Likely to Take Over France Sunday

... by STANLEY JOHNSON

PARIS (AP) — Socialist Leader Guy Mollet left Paris today to meet Gen. Charles de Gaulle amid predictions the World War II hero may take over as premier Sunday or Monday.

If the Socialists swing to De Gaulle, his approval by the National Assembly is assured.

Mollet, former premier, talked for a long time with President Rene Coty, who throughout the day has been urging political leaders to accept De Gaulle or face civil war.

Wartime Premier Edouard Daladier told a meeting of his fellow Radical Socialists after talking with Coty that if all went well, De Gaulle would be invested as premier Sunday or Monday.

Daladier said the general had no intention of coming to the Assembly himself but probably would send a deputy.

The usually well informed independent newspaper Le Monde said De Gaulle's program, as described by Coty, included the demand of full powers for at least one year. During that time Parliament would be limited to one brief session of perhaps a month.

The powers granted De Gaulle would be used primarily to reform the governmental setup and restore peace in Algeria. A revised constitution would be submitted to the electorate in a referendum. Finally, De Gaulle would pledge not to stay in power after his one year mandate was up.

SAC Plans to Fire Missiles Instantly

By ELTON C. FAY and WARREN ROGERS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Strategic Air Command is taking new steps to insure that Atlas intercontinental ballistic missiles may be fired instantly upon an attack warning without long preliminary count-downs and delays that have marked test launches at Cape Canaveral.

This was reported to the Aviation Writers Assn. at Carswell Air Force Base, a major SAC installation near here by Maj. Gen. Charles P. Westover, SAC's director of plans, without indicating how it is to be done.

Airman Gayle Moore, son of C. C. Moore of Hope, is training at FORT WORTH, TEXAS. Staff Sgt. Harold R. Brown, son of Mrs. L. C. Moore, Hope, was appointed to the Air Force Academy.

Shorter College President Named

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Rev. A. O. Wilson, pastor of St. John's AME Church at Pine Bluff, yesterday was named president of Shorter College here.

Wilson will replace the Rev. D. T. Alexander, who resigned at the request of the board.

Wilson was president of the college for nine years in the 1920s.

Bishop O. L. Sherman, presiding bishop of the Twelfth Episcopal District of the AME Church which operates Shorter, said Alexander probably will replace Wilson as pastor at St. John's.

UAW Rejects Last Minute Wage Offer

By CHARLES C. CAIN

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — Today for the first time in 21 years, General Motors plants operated without a contract with 300,000 employee-members of the United Auto Workers.

Company and union negotiators failed to reach agreement on a new wage pact by midnight Thursday, when the three-year-old contract expired.

GM announced it would operate without a contract. That's what it did today at its Atlanta, Ga. plants. They were the only ones open on Memorial Day. No other GM plants are due back in operation until Monday.

Workers reported in normal numbers at Atlanta and without incident. Gate patrols, recommended by the union's international headquarters to check on membership of workers and preserve a union shop, were not organized immediately in Atlanta.

The company rejected a last-minute bid Thursday night by the UAW to work out a temporary agreement covering GM workers.

In an address prepared for the Mississippi State Bar Convention, the senator said he has written the comptroller general "asking him to look into the legality of payments to Arkansas National Guardsmen during their period of federal service" in the school integration crisis.

Stennis said the comptroller general "is a legislative officer—not an executive officer." The implication was that the comptroller would be free of any undue influence by the President's office.

The senator said the comptroller "is the watchdog of the use of government funds" and "is required to follow the letter as well as the spirit of the law."

Stennis, in an analytic review of the Little Rock situation, said use of troops there violated the U.S. Constitution and federal laws.

President Eisenhower, he said, "is not a wilful, nor reckless nor mischievous man."

"But some future president with a less lofty regard for his post under political pressures can well take refuge in this precedent in an attempt to rule with arbitrary power," he said, and make possible "our degeneration as a nation whose chief executive can quickly reach for military power before civil remedies have even been tried."

The State Bar president, W. S. Henley of Hazlehurst, said in his prepared address that the United States Supreme Court has sunk to its lowest level in history.

He criticized high court decisions upholding school integration, freeing some persons accused of communism, and taking from state bar associations their exclusive authority to decide their members.

Henley called on the Mississippi lawyers to take a lead in efforts to inform the American people regarding the Supreme Court whose decisions, he said, are "of peculiar interest to our Southern way of life."

Reuther admitted he faced an uphill fight to achieve his goals for auto workers in this recession year. He wants wage increases, improved pension benefits and a share of profits from firms financially able to pay them.

GM earlier estimated the UAW demands would add 73 cents to the present $24.00 hourly wage for GM workers. It changed this figure to 48 cents an hour after the union revised some demands.

GM said extension of the old agreement would give workers a 9-cent pay hike this year and 7 cents in 1959.

The UAW president failed in a dramatic peace offer after he made to GM in the final fit minutes before the contract ran out.

Reuther suggested that GM hourly rated workers be given a

Elsewhere near normal temperatures are indicated.

Precipitation from now to mid-June is expected to be subnormal over the Pacific Northwest and particularly over the Great Lakes and Upper Mississippi Valley where rainfall has been generally deficient for almost two months. Traffic deaths in the first hours of the three-day Memorial Day appeared running below normal today. But safety experts held to their preholiday estimate that 350 persons will be killed in highway accidents during the extended weekend.

The National Safety Council, which estimated the death toll for the 48th year will be on the highways during the 78-hour period from 6 p.m. (local time) Thursday to midnight Sunday.

Last year the Memorial Day holiday period covered four days and the 413 traffic deaths was a record high for the Decoration Day observance. The overall all-accident death total of 600 also was a record for a four-day Memorial Day period. It included 131 drownings and 113 fatalities in miscellaneous accidents.

The highest traffic toll for a three-day Memorial Day period was 360 in 1955.

Tragedy Hits Young School Graduate

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) —

Graduation and marriage await Diane Montgomery as she drove to Byrd High School Thursday. A few hours later she was dead of injuries suffered when her car collided with an automobile driven by her mother.

State police said the cars were traveling about 50 miles an hour when they collided. Mrs. L. E. Montgomery, Diane's mother, said she saw her daughter's car approaching in the wrong lane but she thought the girl was leaving her and would move back to her proper lane.

The 18-year-old girl was driving a car owned by her fiance Jerry Monroe. They had planned to marry in the near future.

Mrs. Montgomery suffered lacerations and was placed under observation at a hospital.

Both automobiles were badly damaged. State police said skin marks showed Mrs. Montgomery applied her brakes 15 feet from the point of impact.

Victims of Accidents Doing Fine

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Jimmy Bryan, America's top ranking professional auto racer, won the 42nd 500-mile race today, a terrible battle marred by a wild 12-car crash that killed veteran Pat O'Connor.

The week's biggest in the history of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and involving more than a third of the starting line-up came on the third turn in the first lap.

George Amick of Venice, Calif., drove to a fine second-place finish in his first Indianapolis start. He was driving an almost unbearable 144 miles an hour late in the race.

Johnny Boyd of Fresno, Calif., finished a heart-breaking third. He was less than 100 feet behind Bryan for the lead when he had to make an extra pit stop with a worn-out tire, with 20 miles to go.

Moral of This Day Is Keep on Living

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—On Memorial Day you might as well put the moral at the start.

"Keep living!"

The purpose of the dead is for us to be. They ran out of breath for us.

On this day of national recognition of mortality, time gives us a pause. This pause gives us time to reflect. We jubilate the past and hold a heart-coming for the dead.

Memorial Day is an opportunity. It is an opportunity to admire your ancestors. There under known stars they glimmer unknown forever. They put us here.

It is a day to honor a husband, brother, son, or friend, dead or away—and absence is a form of death.

The whole problem of Memorial Day is one of transportation. You are transported by your loyalties, and remembrance.

Life hastens. The eternal growl.

Television to Stick to Usual Fare

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—I've been looking over the tentative fall schedules of the three networks and I find they contain the usual fare—Westerns, situation comedies, quizzes.

Frankly, the situation disturbs me. But I don't think the season has to fall into the same old rut—a few new program ideas would fix things up fine. In the interests of better programming, therefore, I have compiled the following possible formats for TV shows next semester:

"The Places Show"—I see this as a one-man assisted by one Atlas type show. The idea is for him to call out places—Minneapolis; Detroit; Tiffin, Ohio; Chavez Ravine; Kanda Kanda, Belgian Congo—and then let the studio audience applaud. That's all.

"The Awards Show"—an entry that would take care of all the trophies, plaques, medals, statuettes, certificates, ribbons, decorations, garlands, crowns, citations, honors, titles, cups, saucers and gold records ordinarily bestowed upon performers each week on their own programs.

"The Coming Attractions Theatre"—This one would be a drama show made up of all those scenes played at the end of "Playhouse 90," "Climax," and "Studio One" that capsulizes what's coming up the following week. They're usually the best part of the upcoming script anyhow.

"The Vaughn Monroe Show"—one-half-hour of Monroe dropping radios.

"The Plug Show"—in which stars would parade on stage to puff their latest movies, books, plays and to make jokes about commercial products that aren't their sponsors's. I see Bob Hope as emcee.

"The Sound Track Show"—made up of the greatest canned laughs from filmed situation comedies.

"The Egghead Show"—Italian and Japanese movies.

"The Super-Egghead Show"—Italian and Japanese movies with French titles.

"The Postcard Show"—a once-month entry in which the home participation quizzes like "The Price is Right," "Dolto" and "Treasure Hunt" select a viewer to whom they can send all their used postcards.

"The Horror Show"—made up entirely of stomach acid commercials.

"The Break-Up Show"—Helen Traubel roaring at Eddie Fisher who has mussed his lines after watching Steve Allen giggle when Sid Caesar coughed as a result of Frank Sinatra mumbling under his breath in Italian because Patti Page forgot the words to an introduction. I should explain that it was all caused by Perry Como who misread his cue cards.

"The Stars Strike Back Show"—in which TV critics poke their heads through a 21-inch hole while performers throw typewriters at them. I see this as a spectacular.

Short Shots: It was bound to happen dep't; Tuesday night a contestant on NBC-TV's "Treasure Hunt," a citizen of New York, won an all-expenses-paid trip to New York. Debbie Reynolds, who guested on the NBC-TV "Eddie Fisher Show" Tuesday night, blotted out her husband, Oscar Levant, was on hand, too, and I must say it's satisfying to watch a disruptive force at work in a show ordinarily made up of milk and water. Margaret Truman turned in a charming guest stint with Johnny Carson on the NBC-TV "Jack Paar Show" Tuesday night—poised, assured and non-siggy.

The channel swimmer Larry Hagman, Mary Martin's son, has been added to the cast of the June 12 CBS-TV spec, "Member of the Wedding." Pat Weaver, former president of NBC, will shoot the pilot film of a projected new TV series, "Are You A Star?" in Manhattan next Monday—Jim Backus stars.

CBS-TV's One Hour musical spec based on "Little Women" has been slotted for Oct. 16. O. Henry's "Gift of the Magi," another CBS-TV musical spec, is now set for Dec. 9. The tentative cut-off date for the ABC-TV "Pattie Munsel Show" now is June 19—Miss Munsel expects a baby in September.

ABC-TV will move a Los Angeles show, "Stars of Jazz," into the Monday night "Voice of Firestone" slot for the summer beginning June 9. Ed Sullivan will film an interview with King Baudouin of Belgium for his June 19 CBS-TV show, which will seat 10,000 people around the Brussels World's Fair.

Mutual Radio will sit on all 10 of its mystery and adventure shows as of June 9, and go in heavily for news programming. It marks the end of a 24-year network of police, drama, programming—Johnny Carson turned down the manager job of the planned ABC-TV comedy panel show "Laughline" as Alou Young finally had the job.

State Military Will Move to Robinson

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Military Department plans to move within a few months into a new building at Camp Robinson, financed with money saved because of the Little Rock integration crisis.

All department offices, except that of the adjutant general, will be moved from the state Capitol into a new $40,000 building now under construction.

Major Gen. Sherman Clinger, state adjutant, said the state was saved considerable expense, both in salaries and maintenance, when President Eisenhower federalized the militia last September. All 10,000 members were in federal service for nearly a month and the last 412 of them will not be mustered out until today.

Clinger said about $40,000 was saved on maintenance and this money was used to contract for the new building. The $18,000 saved in salaries had to be turned back to the state treasurer. Clinger said the decision to move military offices grew out of the need for more space at the Capitol and convenience, since some military functions already were being carried out at Camp Robinson.

"I don't think the Legislature ever would have appropriated funds for a building," Clinger said, "but we are going to have a more efficient and convenient operation. Visiting officials can combine their business into a single call at the camp. Now they go to camp for one thing and to the Capitol for another."

Clinger's office will remain at the Capitol because state law requires that he have his office there, but Clinger hopes that someday the law will be changed so that the entire Military Department operation can be carried on at Camp Robinson.

Air Officer Held in Fatal Shooting

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Little Rock resident died today of bullet wounds suffered here last night, and police said an Air Force captain surrendered in connection with the shooting.

The victim was Leslie Gann, 34, who police said was shot at the home of the captain's estranged wife.

The air force officer was booked as Capt. Duane Rosenkjar, 33, of the nearby Little Rock Air Force Base. He was held without formal charge.

Police Sgt. Woody James said Mrs. Alice Roskjar related that she and Gann returned to her home shortly before midnight, she said she had gone to a bedroom when she heard shots.

She ran into a hall where she found Gann wounded and Rosenkjar with a pistol in his hand, James said she related. The Air Force officer left the house, but later surrendered at police headquarters.

Two children of the Rosenkjars, aged eight and 10, were asleep at the time.

33 Drivers Are in the Annual Speedway Race

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Thirty-three auto race drivers from 13 states will hurl a million dollars worth of glittering cars down the Indianapolis Motor Speedway's main straightaway today.

About four hours after the start of the 42nd 500-mile race, one of these veteran drivers will be a rich man. The trackside guess is that it will be either Jimmy Bryan or one of the three Zink Special team mates.

Prizes, totalling about $300,000, will not be announced until Saturday night.

On a short haul, the favorite would be Ed Elsian, who turned in the first 148-mile-an-hour lap in a practice run, or Dick Rathmann, who set an official four-lap qualifying record of 145.974.

Elsian, a bulldog from Oakland, Calif., veteran of Armenian ancestry, drives with the same furious disregard for his health as his close friend Bill Vukovich, who was killed in a four-car crash while leading the 1955 Memorial Day race.

Vukovich was the last fatality in the race proper. Keith Andrews, killed in a practice run last year, was the 47th person fatally injured at the track.

Elsian is one of the three drivers for John Zink, Tulsa, Okla., oil man. The others, Jud Larson, Hickman Mills, Mo., and Jimmy Reece, Indianapolis, also have exceptionally fast cars.

Reece and Elsian will start in the front row with Dick Rathmann whose abide shifts from Trenton, N.J., to Miami to Indianapolis.

Sentiment for Bryan, husky Phoenix driver with three national championships was increased by his assignment to the flat-engine Belvoir Special in which Sam Hanks won last year's race a record average of 155.601 miles an hour.

Stout contenders will include Rathmann's brother Jim, who charged from 32nd to second place last year and finished only 21 seconds behind Hanks. Jim has the same big blue Hopkins Special with important improvements.

Fastest cars on the straightaways — but not on the turns — are the Novi Specials driven by Grandpa Paul Russo, oldest man in the field at 44 and veteran of 12 previous starts, and rookie Bill Cheesbourg, Tucson, Ariz., Russo, of Webster Groves, Mo., has led part of the last two races. The Novis have new engines this year.

Mantle in a Slump, Worry Is Problem

NEW YORK (AP) — What can you find to worry about when you are leading the league by 7½ games?

Well, in the case of the New York Yankees there always is Mickey Mantle.

Either Mickey isn't hitting enough home runs or he is striking out too much. Maybe he isn't getting the jump on the long fly ball hit over his head. Or perhaps he is limping. Or maybe his shoulder aches.

At the moment it is the strikeout total that is causing a mild upset. He struck out six times in the last two games at Kansas City, both of which were lost.

Mantle now has struck out 32 times in 32 games as compared with his career low of 75 last season in the entire schedule. He whiffed 15 times on the 13-game road trip that ended Wednesday in Kansas City.

His average is down to .280 and he has hit only four home runs. "I've got to lick the thing myself," he said. "I've got to fight my way out of it and I will."

"My right shoulder is sore but that's not the reason I've been looking so bad. I'm not swinging the way I should. I guess anybody can see that."

"It's right if he says he's pulling his head off the ball," said Manager Casey Stengel. "Sometimes he's looking way up there instead of down here."

Gil McDougald, Yankee second baseman, thinks Mickey is worrying too much about his problems at the plate.

"One thing I do know, he's not whipping the bat through his natural way," said McDougald. "That means he's thinking about his swing and no player in the world can afford to do that."

Stout contenders will include Rathmann's brother Jim, who charged from 32nd to second place last year and finished only 21 seconds behind Hanks. Jim has the same big blue Hopkins Special with important improvements.

Fastest cars on the straightaways — but not on the turns — are the Novi Specials driven by Grandpa Paul Russo, oldest man in the field at 44 and veteran of 12 previous starts, and rookie Bill Cheesbourg, Tucson, Ariz., Russo, of Webster Groves, Mo., has led part of the last two races. Summit Meet Conference Starts Soon

Foreign News Commentary By CHARLES M. McCANN

Negotiations with Soviet Russia which may lead to a summit conference on cold war problems apparently are going to start soon.

President Eisenhower's new letter to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev offers hope that technical negotiations on the possibility of an agreement to suspend tests of nuclear weapons may be opened within a matter of weeks.

These negotiations would be strictly limited to the one question of the weapons tests; which lies in the field of disarmament. But they should show whether the Soviet government is ready to act in good faith in summit negotiations also.

Further, they presumably will be accompanied by direct negotiations on the summit conference to be conducted in Moscow between the United States and British ambassadors to Russia on one hand and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko on the other.

Latest Step.
Eisenhower's letter to Khrushchev is the latest step in a series of exchanges which started last December when former Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin began clamoring for a summit conference.

These exchanges have concerned both the summit conference itself and the related question of reopening the deadlocked disarmament talks.

Eisenhower suggested to Khrushchev, Bulganin's successor, on April 23 that "designated technical people" study the possibility of establishing safeguards which would prevent violation of an agreement to suspend the weapons tests.

The President also reminded Khrushchev that he previously had suggested broader negotiations on limiting the danger of a nuclear war.

Khrushchev replied on May 10. He said he had "serious doubts" about the desirability of expert negotiations on suspension of weapons tests because they would merely delay an actual test.

But he said that as Eisenhower attached great importance to the expert negotiations, he was prepared to agree to them.

Experts Appointed.
The Soviet government is agreed to have either side appoint experts who should immediately start work on studying the means of detecting possible violations of an agreement to end nuclear tests with the proviso that tests should be completed in the shortest time agreed upon before Khrushchev's deadline to complete work within the shortest time.

No Cocktail Host Is Like Hitchcock

By DOC QUIGG

NEW YORK (UPI)—I've had cocktails, through the years, with such enchanting personalities as Patsy Palmer, Winston Churchill, Ataturk's favorite dancing girl, Princess Grace of Monaco, Frank Costello and other names too fancy to drop, but let me tell you this—there's no cocktail host like Alfred Hitchcock.

When Hitchcock throws a cocktail party, whimsy breaks out in great dildops and spreads all over the place. His latest drinkery for the press was in an unfinished room near the top of an unfinished skyscraper and was reached by taking an unfinished elevator.

The elevator had no lights, it was draped inside with funeral black cloth. But enough light came through the black lining, as you were borne skyward, to disclose a skeleton standing in the corner. It was not a naked skeleton; it wore a black brassiere with red trimmings, and a sprouting red-beet headdress.

Insurance Provided.
As you entered the party room, a place of bare, unfinished concrete and plaster, a couple of zombie ladies with scraggly-hanging black hairdo handed you a Hitchcock insurance policy. It provided indemnity for loss of life limb, sight, or time by accidental means.

The bartenders were dressed as surgeons, with white masks. An oxygen tank, labeled "just in case," stood by. The room was dressed with two coffins and a scattering of skeletons in various poses.

Two nurses were coming and going, but their going appearance was a vast change from their approaching one. Their uniforms were standard in front. But in the back they puffed wide in an upside down V. The top of the opening was at about mid-spine.

Didn't Look Like Nurse.

One of the nurses wore special panties, tiered with lace ruffles and tiny black bows. "Made 'em myself," she said. The others apparently had not got the word beforehand about the new-style uniform she would be wearing. She wore nothing special. I asked her what was the name of the new style.

"Poof-boob," she replied.
The affair was called a "over-the-top party." Guests got workers' negotiations on a test ban alone. But the White House said at once that it might serve as the basis for progress toward agreement on disarmament.

It is to this pointed acceptance that Eisenhower has replied.

The President now suggests that negotiations be started within three weeks after Khrushchev's confirmation that he is ready for them.

The experts, meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, would make a progress report within 30 days of the start of their meeting and then make a final report within 90 days.

The terminology seems to suggest Khrushchev's desire to complete work within the shortest time.

Central Graduate to Michigan State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Ernest Green, the first Negro to graduate from Central High School here, plans to enroll on scholarship at Michigan State University this fall.

The university announced yesterday that Green has been awarded a scholarship worth $555 a year, the amount of the regular out-of-state tuition fee.

Green's mother said he would accept the scholarship.

J. Robert Stewart, the university's scholarship committee chairman, said Green also will receive from $500 to $500 from the National Scholarship Service and Fund for Negro Students.

Michigan State is in East Lansing, Mich.

Mother's League to Celebrate

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The League of Central High Mothers plans to celebrate the departure of the last Arkansas National Guard troops on duty at Central High.

A party will be held tonight at the home of Mrs. Margaret Jackson, president of the segregationist group.

The league also plans to begin a drive to get signatures on a petition for the States Rights Amendment, which would require closing schools integrated without approval of a majority of the voters in a school district.

plastic helmets with "vertigo" printed on them. A platform outside a window was marked "Get your vertigo here," and sure enough, it did afford a rather dizzying view of third avenue.

Maybe you think the whole thing was just too cute, but everybody had a nice time, and Hitchcock got in some nice plugs for his latest hair-raising movie ("Vertigo," as if you didn't know).

Sales of Autos Fall Behind a Year Ago

By DAVID J. WILKIE

DETROIT (AP)—Passenger car production and sales are falling further behind last year's volume.

So far this year the auto industry has built about 1,867,000 cars. It has sold approximately 1,900,000. At the comparable point in 1957 factory output had reached 2,000,000 units and sales about 2,000,000.

This year's lowered output has cut into dealer inventories. As sales have been kept below retail sales to achieve this result, high point of inventories so far this year was the March 1 total of 365,500 cars. Stocks now are well below 800,000 units.

Industry authorities are predicting dealer stocks will be under 300,000 at the start of the year's fourth quarter. Most sales chiefs look for an major upturn in demand and, consequently, no increase in the current production level through the year's third quarter.

Cautious predictions are heard of a sharp production increase in the final three months of the year. That will mark the start of the 1959 model year.

The traditional spring upturn in new car demand failed to materialize again this year. It was the third consecutive year the industry had to mark off that seasonal upturn.

Trade experts now say this year's total retail sales will not go much above 4,200,000 units, plus about 275,000 imported car deliveries.

The car makers still have not said they plan an earlier changeover period would be substantially longer than usual to enable retailers to liquidate outgoing models.

Twenty-One Was Thriller Tuesday Night

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—My intention was to lead off with a review of "Twenty One," but it seems to me the most beautifully patterned drama on TV Monday night looks place on "Twenty One."

The quizzes have taken their lumps from the critics and I have lumped along with the best of them. But it must be said that when a well-constructed quiz like "Twenty One" looks this good, it can't be beaten.
